Career Services Structure

At the University of Houston, we have 6 college based career centers in addition to our office (University Career Services).

As you can see to the left, our office can serve as the hub to get you connected to those college based centers and/or we can assist you in engaging a broad range of students.

Most of the college based centers use a similar database system and we can in fact send job postings between our systems.

For more information about the college based centers or how to best engage with UH students, please contact our Employer Relations and Development Team.
