

AAS 4377: Seminar on W.E. B. Du Bois

This course will examine the life and career of W.E.B. Du Bois, founder of the NAACP; Father of Pan-Africanism; Father of Urban Sociology; novelist, historian and poet. Born in 1868 as Reconstruction writhed in its death throes and expiring in August 1963 as the March on Washington catapulting Dr. King into prominence marked a new era, Dr. Du Bois defined a veritable century in African-American life. This course will involve screening documentaries about Du Bois and his era and will emphasize class participation. Readings will include books by Dr. Du Bois--and Dr. Horne.
