

CCS SEMINARS FALL 2015

*FALL SEMINAR THEME: "HEALTH AND REPRODUCTION"

*9.18.15

Alex Bentley - Comparative Cultural Studies

"Social influence and family planning in Matlab, Bangladesh."

*10.2.15

Sarah Luna - Women's, Gender & Sexuality Studies

Sex workers and missionaries at the US/Mexico border.

*10.16.15

Ricardo Nuila - Baylor College of Medicine

"Health Care Challenges for the Unfunded, Undocumented, and Dying."

10.30.15

Rex Koontz - School of Art

"Digitizing humanities: sorting, comparing and categorizing prehistoric art and material culture with 3D scanning technology."

11.6.15

Smitha Vishwarupa - University of Texas MD Anderson Centre

"Yoga practice and research: restoring health and well-being"

*11.13.15

Mark Goldberg - History Department

"Healthy Anglos, Unhealthy Mexicans: Health, Race, and Medicine in South Texas."

*12.4.15

Susan Rasmussen - Comparative Cultural Studies

"Spirits and pills who are against children: Medico-rituals and assisted reproductive technologies in a Tuareg couple's quest for parenthood."

12.11.15

Randolph Widmer - Comparative Cultural Studies

"Identifying Lapidary Craft Production in the Tlajinga District of Teotihuacan"

All presentations at noon, McElhinney M 116