

UH Liberal Studies - North Atlantic Adventure - 2016

A Celtic, Gaelic, Nordic Cultural Odyssey and Bold Sea Voyage!

July 20, 2016 to August 20, 2016

A European cultural and history journey on world's largest two-mast Topsail Schooner Wylde Swan
from France to Norway

* Application ****

 Apply by March 4, 2016 ***

UH Scholarship Deadline: March 4

<http://www.uh.edu/learningabroad/scholarships/uh-scholarships/>

An ocean sailing adventure filled with sail training, fun and culture.
Visit old Celtic and Gaelic sites, historic locations in Ireland and Scotland, beautiful islands like St. Kilda, the Shetland Islands and the Danish Faroe Islands.
Culminating with exploration of the dazzling Norwegian Fjords and forrests.

UH Courses Offered (not required, tuition additional)

- ILAS 4350 Senior Seminar in Liberal Studies
- PHYS 1305 Introductory Astronomy

Training by Wylde Swan Crew:

- Sail training
- Navigation
- Astronavigation

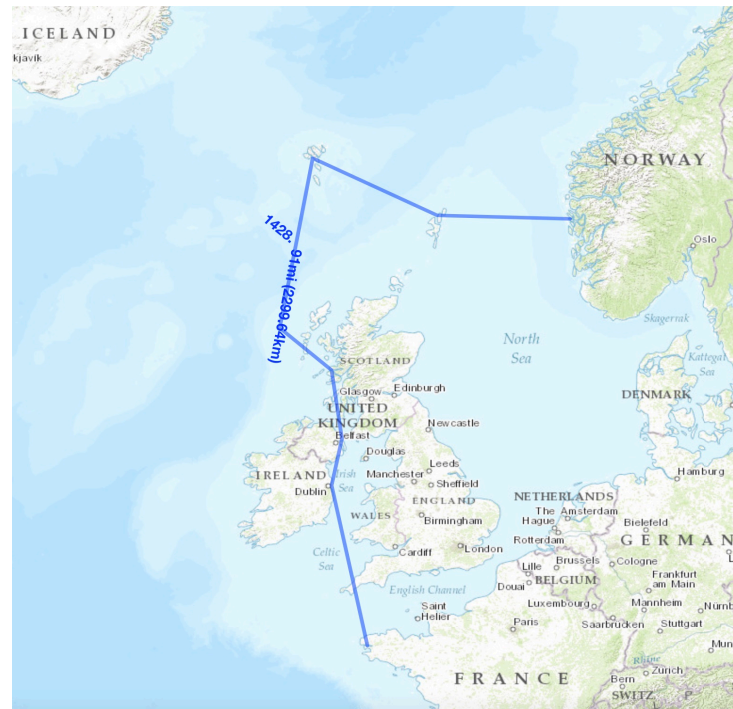

What's Included

- Accomodation
- Breakfast*
- Lunch*
- Dinner*
- Sail training
- *on board each day

Itinerary

Brest, France
Dublin, Ireland
Isle of Mull
St. Kilda
Faroe Islands
Shetland Islands
Bergen, Norway
 weather dependent

Program Fee:

€3320 Euro's **
(Non-refundable deposit of €500)

 Fee based on 25 paying participants, will vary based on enrollment from minimum of 20 participants at € 3650

For information about Wylde Swan:

Ms. Leoni Heuvelman
Sales and hospitality manager mail: leoni@wyldeswan.eu
tel: +31621713326

For information & application:

Dr. Thomas Behr
Director of Liberal Studies Program University of Houston mail: tbehr@uh.edu
tel: (713) 743 - 4943