

Five weeks studying in Rome, with all its ancient, medieval and Renaissance splendor. Students can take up to 2 courses for credit at University of Houston, and potentially transferable to other schools. Class time and assignments will be interspersed with organized visits in Rome, excursions to Pompeii and to Assisi, and plenty of free time to explore Rome and visit other parts of Italy.

Courses:

Liberal Studies Senior Seminar

The Liberal Studies required capstone course. A "great books" seminar with a reading list tailored to make the most of our Rome experience. Electronic texts included in program fee.

Additional courses, depending on the number of participants:

- Roman Civilization in Art & Architecture
- History and Politics of Globalization

Ruins of Pompeii

Program Costs

(based on a group size of at least 15 participants)

Program fee $ 3,975

Fee includes: itinerary; accommodation in residence hall; use of classroom, library, computer lab; community kitchen in dorm; museum and excursion expenses as listed, welcome reception, welcome dinner, and farewell dinner, public transportation pass in Rome.

Not included in the fee: tuition, airfare, meals not listed, insurances, personal and misc. expenses

Note: Discount on UH fees of $250 for 3 SCH's and $500 for 6 SCH's.

Scholarships for UH students available at <http://www.uh.edu/studyabroad/>

Non-UH students will NOT have to pay tuition for course credit to the University of Houston. They pay only the program fee and other non-program costs like airfare and food. UH has only nominal registration and transcript fees for non-UH students to get study abroad credit applicable to their home institutions.

*Program costs are subject to change due to fluctuations in the value of the Euro in relation to the U.S. dollar.
