

A proud product of Houston's Second Ward, Carla Hulsey knows how to get big things done in a challenging environment.

As the City Council District H Deputy Chief of Staff, Carla leads a team of hard working constituent services staffers, and advises Council Member Gonzalez on the City Council agenda and policy items.

Before joining her home district council staff, Carla served as the Communications Director for District B Council Member Jerry Davis. There, she organized the inaugural Walking Toward Literacy event in Northeast Houston in 2012, attended by over 300 community members.

In 2011, Carla received her Bachelor of Arts in political science with a minor in Mexican American studies from the University of Houston, where she participated in the Hobby Center for Public Policy's Civic Houston Internship Program as an intern for City Council Member Ed Gonzalez. Following graduation, Carla served as the District Aide in State Representative Armando Walle's district office.

Throughout, Carla has remained active in her neighborhood. She serves as the precinct 10 Democratic Chair, as Vice President of the first ever PTA at Mendel Elementary in North Houston, and works closely with community leaders in the Second Ward.
