

Captain Daria Awusah, JD is a United States Air Force Judge Advocate, currently serving as the Area Defense Counsel at Dover Air Force Base, Delaware. She provides legal counsel and defense representation to active duty personnel in the areas of criminal investigations, adverse administrative actions, nonjudicial punishments, and courts-martial. Capt. Awusah attained her bachelor of arts degree, graduating magna cum laude with degrees in both political science and communications from the University of Houston. She participated in the Center for Public Policy's Civic Houston Internship Program (CHIP), interning in the office of Congressman Al Green and also in the Washington, DC office of Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee. Capt. Awusah received her juris doctorate from the University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law, and has since been awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal twice and the Outstanding Military Volunteer in 2016. She is a mentor with the Big Brother Big Sister Program, a member of the Camden-Wyoming Rotary Club, and a volunteer on the Reverse Dignified Transfer Team with the Air Force Mortuary Affairs Operations.