

Addendum to Honors Coursebook Spring 2018

This is an additional BAUER BUSINESS HONORS course:

Seminar in Globalization

This course is cross-listed as HON 4360-01 (16206)

Course Number: INTB 4397H
Instructor: Andra Olivia Miljanic
Class Number: 24641
Days and Times: TuTh 11:30 A.M.-1:00 P.M.

As the capstone seminar for the Certificate in Global Studies and Research, this course allows students to take full advantage of the cross-disciplinary expertise of the instructor and the experiences of other seminar participants, and grow into confident independent thinkers and critical global citizens. The first part of the course introduces core readings and research methodology from across the social sciences, equipping students with a set of common tools for examining globalization. The second part of the course gives students the opportunity to become experts in a subfield of globalization of their choice, which can range from Politics and Diplomacy to Finance and Economics to Popular Culture. The third part of the course initiates students into independent research, allowing them to study in depth a particular globalization question. Students are encouraged to explore a topic that is most interesting and important to them and to consider expanding their independent research project beyond this course, into a senior thesis and beyond UH.

This course should be included with the BAUER BUSINESS HONORS courses:

Microeconomic Principles

Course Number: ECON 2304H
Instructor: Natalia Scotto Piqueira
Class Number: 19226
Days and Times: MoWe 1:00 P.M.-2:30 P.M.

Macroeconomics is the study of the interrelationships between economic output (growth), inflation, and unemployment. Study of the business cycle and fiscal and monetary policy (Fed) are core topics. In addition, the process of determining both short and long term interest rates will be discussed at length. International trade and finance will also be addressed such as the links that exist to stock, bond, money, and foreign exchange markets.
