

Are you a grad student or alumna looking to tackle a new challenge while learning a marketable job skill? Are you interested in making a difference in the nonprofit/public sector? If so, this is the perfect opportunity for you.

Grantsmanship Training Program®

(the gold standard of Grants Training)

San Antonio, TX
October 27-31, 2014

hosted by

Alamo Area Council of Governments
(AACOG)

During this training, you'll learn to:

- Create every element of a strong grant application
- Use a variety of funding research tools to pinpoint the funders most likely to support your organization or program
- Review proposals the way funders do, so you'll understand what works, what doesn't, and why
- Collaborate with others to plan effective programs

Tuition for this training is $895.

Special Discount for University/College Affiliates: Attend the San Antonio Grantsmanship Training Program, October 27-31, 2014 for ½ price ($447.50). Use promo code: HigherEd

Training Site:

Alamo Area Council of Governments
8700 Tesoro Drive
San Antonio, TX 78217

Host Contact:

Marcela Medina
(210) 362-5250
mmedina@aacog.com

To Reserve a place in this training,
call The Grantsmanship Center's Registrar at: (800) 421-9512
For more information, visit us online at: www.tgci.com