

Latino Health Summit 2015

Preventive and Integrated Approaches to Healthcare

Hispanic
Health Coalition

Friday, February 27, 2015, 8 a.m. – 3 p.m.
University of Houston College of Education
Stephen Power Farish Hall, KIVA room 101

Elena V. Rios, M.D., M.S.P.H.

President and CEO, National Hispanic Medical Association
New York Academy of Medicine Fellow

Keynote speaker, Dr. Elena Rios is on a mission to improve the health of Hispanics and serves on the Commission to End Health Disparities, the Campaign Against Obesity, Nurse Family Partnership, and the National Quality Forum's National Priorities Partnerships Steering Committee.

She has received awards from the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, the American Public Health Association and the Association of Hispanic Health Executives.

Summit topics include:

- Changing the Face of Houston: Tracking the Economic and Demographic Transformations
- Integrated Approaches to Promoting Healthy Lifestyles in Latino Families
- Mental Health Issues Facing Hispanics
- Break Out Session
- Foundation Panel — Episcopal Health Charities Houston Endowment

Register online at:

<http://hispanic-health.org/latino-health-summit.html>

early registration $35 • at the door $40 • students $20

CHES credits will be offered

Persons with disabilities who desire accommodations should contact Paula Leveston at pcanada@uh.edu or call 713.743.0892, by February 20, 2015.

Stephen L. Klineberg, Ph.D.

Professor of Sociology, Rice University
Co-director, Kinder Institute for Urban Research

Norma Olvera, Ph.D.

The Obesity Society Fellow
Director of the Latino Health Disparities Lab
Associate Professor
Health Program Lead, Educational Psychology
College of Education, University of Houston

Maria Quintero, Ph.D., FAAIDD

Assistant Deputy Director of Provider Services, Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Division,
MHMRA of Harris County

Hispanic Health Coalition • 713.666.5644 • hhc@hispanic-health.org