

Public Policy Manager

Houston Food Bank

Build relationships with elected and other government officials to create stronger partnerships in the fight against hunger. Build HFB's external face as the expert on hunger and poverty. Research, formulate and implement advocacy strategies with key stakeholder groups, including grass roots community advocates. Monitor hunger-related activities at all levels of government. Establish and coordinate an outreach plan to build community engagement with HFB. Maintain data sources and web pages to support strategic communications.

Education/Experience

Bachelor's Degree or higher in Political Science, Public Affairs or related degree, or 5-7 years related experience.

Skills/Abilities

Strategic interaction with elected officials; fluency in government policy and funding processes. Observant strategic thinker, strong verbal and written communications, and basic graphic layout experience.

Please send resume, clearly noting the job that you're applying for, to:

Houston Food Bank

Attn: HR/Position applied for

535 Portwall Street

Houston, TX 77029

713-547-8655

E-mail: jobs@houstonfoodbank.org.