JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Assistant, Associate or Full Professor

Employer/Agency: Fayetteville State University

Job Description: The Department of Social Work at Fayetteville State University invites application for the position at the rank of assistant, associate or full professor to begin in August 2013. Fayetteville State University is a constituent institution of the University of North Carolina and the second oldest public institution of higher education in the state. Founded in 1867 as the Howard School for the education of African Americans, today FSU serves a growing student body of nearly 6,000 and ranks among the nation's most diverse campus communities. Fayetteville is located in the scenic Cape Fear River Valley of North Carolina, between the Blue Ridge Mountains and the Atlantic Ocean. Residents of Fayetteville enjoy mild temperatures, four distinct seasons, a low cost of living, and easy access to beautiful Carolina beaches.

Fayetteville State University is one of the 16 universities that comprise the University of North Carolina system. The City of Fayetteville is rapidly expanding and is within range of major regional and national transportation. It has recently been recognized as one of the major areas for economic growth. Ft Bragg, the largest military installation in the United States is within ten minutes of the University. The department has a unique contractual relationship with the U S Army at Fort Sam Houston, Texas to prepare MSW trained military personnel and also a contract for the North Carolina Welfare Collaborative program to prepare MSW students for leadership roles in the field of child welfare services. FSU provides a competitive salary. The faculty of the CSWE-accredited Master of Social Work program seeks a dynamic colleague committed to teaching excellence, research, and service. The position will remain open until filled.

Qualifications: The successful candidate will be expected to teach courses in the children and family services concentration and will primarily teach in the MSW Program. Experience in teaching research and/or statistics preferred. The faculty member will engage in teaching, scholarship, field liaison work, student advisement, department, university, and community service. Faculty members may be required to teach one undergraduate course and two master level courses per semester. Experience in teaching online courses preferred.

Qualifications:
Earned doctorate in social work or related field

Teaching experience at the graduate level in children and family services
Commitment to scholarship and service

Salary/Hours: DOE

Employer/Agency: Fayetteville State University
City, State, Zip: Fayetteville, NC

Application Method: To receive full consideration, please submit:
