

Psychological Counselor, COUNSELING AND PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES (CAPS), UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

Two full-time, benefits-eligible positions commencing August 10, 2015.

Minimum qualifications :

A Master's degree in Counseling Psychology, Clinical Psychology, or Social Work. Licensure is required at time of interview. We welcome applicants who do not have prior counseling center experience provided candidates clearly articulate how their experience in other settings can be translated to a counseling center/higher education setting.

Desired qualifications:

Candidates who are licensed and have experience and expertise in one or more of the following areas: men's issues; veteran population; ability differences; crisis intervention; and outreach presentations.

General responsibilities :

Provide multiculturally competent, high-quality individual, couples and group counseling; crisis intervention; consultation and outreach; and additional duties as assigned by the Director. Although candidates will not directly supervise pre-doctoral interns or practicum trainees, they may co-lead couples and group therapy with trainees.

CAPS is charged with serving the mental health needs of the campus community. CAPS is accredited by the International Association of Counseling Services and also offers an APA accredited internship in professional psychology. The staff consists of licensed psychologists, doctoral and masters level mental health professionals, and advanced graduate trainees in counseling and clinical psychology.

University of Houston consists of 13 colleges and professional schools. Located near downtown Houston, the attractive campus has 40,914 students and 3,760 faculty. The University is second most ethnically diverse campus in the nation, with roughly 26.9% Hispanics, 29% Caucasians, 19.8% Asian Americans, 10.2% African-Americans, 9.8% International, 3% Multiracial, 0.1% Native Americans, and 0.9% unknown.

Houston is the fourth largest U.S. city, boasting the Texas Medical Center, extensive cultural and recreational opportunities, as well as professional sports. It is forty-five minutes from the Gulf coast, with a semi-tropical climate.

The University of Houston is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer. Minorities, women, veterans, and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply. This is a security sensitive position. A criminal history record investigation will be conducted.

Application instructions to be completed via the UH Human Resources Website www.uh.edu/hr :

1. Candidates must submit an application via UH Human Resources website by going to www.uh.edu/hr . Click on “employment home”, “job website”, “search postings”, and enter the posting number S003432 to complete the HR application. Please do not send a separate email to UH CAPS.
2. Candidates must upload a cover letter delineating the manner in which their work experience applies to this position.
3. Candidates must upload a current resume.
4. Candidates must list three professional references. The references must include a former supervisor and/or current supervisor.

Note: We will maintain your confidentiality and notify you in advance of making contact with any of your references. References may be contacted prior to an invitation for a campus visit.