

Job Title	Safe Repatriation Social Worker
Employer/ Agency	The Young Center for Immigrant Children's Rights
Job Description	The Young Center for Immigrant Children's Rights invites applications for the position of Safe Repatriation Social Worker to be based in the Young Center's Harlingen, Texas or Phoenix, Arizona office. The Safe Repatriation Social Worker will collaborate with the safe repatriation project team to oversee international home studies, external consultations, safety assessments, and safety planning for repatriation cases. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: the Safe Repatriation Social Worker's primary responsibilities include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Manage all Young Center directed international home studies across multiple sites. In collaboration with the repatriation project team and case supervisors, the Safe Repatriation Social Worker is expected to gather the relevant information needed to prepare for international home study requests and coordinate internal and external stakeholders in order to execute international home studies;• Identify and secure additional international home study providers;• Prepare and process home study contracts, including billing paperwork and report translations;• Coordinate internal and external case consultations on safe repatriation cases;• Research resources in children's communities in the country of origin and, in collaboration with case supervisors, connect repatriated children and their families to local community service providers;• Collaborate with case supervisors to draft safety plans designed to assist the child in reintegrating into their community;• In collaboration with case supervisors, organize follow-up communication and correspondence with children, their families, and service providers after children's repatriation;• Track, compile, and analyze data to present to repatriation team;• Draft case summaries and outcomes for quarterly reports; and,• Other duties as assigned.

Qualifications	MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Master’s degree in social work; Texas or Arizona licensure or the ability to become licensed strongly encouraged. • Bilingual in Spanish/English. • Strong writing and communication skills in English and Spanish; excellent organizational and planning skills. • Passion, tenacity and optimism for the issues affecting immigrant children and their families, as well as experience in self-care strategies. • A driver’s license is necessary. PRERFERRED QUALIFICATIONS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two years post-graduate experience, preferably working with immigrant and refugee children and/or families.
Salary/Hours	DOE
Employer/Agency	The Young Center for Immigrant Children’s Rights
City, State, Zip	Harlingen, Texas or Phoenix, Arizona
Email Address	jobs@TheYoungCenter.org
Application Method	Please email a cover letter, resume and three references to jobs@TheYoungCenter.org and include the title “Safe Repatriation Social Worker” in the subject line.
Opening Date	Immediate

To post a job opportunity or if your response to this job posting results in successful employment, please email the GCSW Office of Alumni and Career Services at mswjobs@central.uh.edu with the hiring details of your new job opportunity. Thank you.

