

Job Title	MSW Case Manager – Engagement Services
Employer/ Agency	SEARCH Homeless Services
Job Description	SEARCH has an onboarding program where MSW candidates join our team for an initial training assignment in our Resource Center. This initial assignment is expected to run for up to 6 months; during that time we find a match for your next assignment in any of our departments. Starting in our Resource Center provides a great foundation for succeeding with clients experiencing homelessness and helps us identify which of many programs are the most ideal fit to your career goals. You will learn about and connect with every program at SEARCH as you help clients navigate our systems. Our Resource Center is deeply connected to city wide Coordinated Access and is focused on facilitating entry and assessments for all current and prospective clients of SEARCH. Provides high volume information & referral and connects client to both basic and long term services. High rate of client contact to hone crisis de-escalation, crisis intervention, and motivational interviewing spirit. Regular full-time role, with full training and benefits.
Qualifications	MSW. Strongly prefer prior experience with homeless and/or dual diagnoses populations (masters level internships count).
