PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

THE PUTMAN FIRM, Houston, Texas

Managing Attorney

March 2013—current

The Putman Firm is a family law litigation firm that handles a wide array of family matters including divorce, custody, visitation and child support prosecution and defense. The Putman Firm also serves clients who are facing criminal charges that intersect family law including family violence assault cases, protective orders (criminal and civil) and allegations of child abuse.

UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON, Houston, Texas

Adjunct Professor

August 2012—current

Veteran lecturer on the African American experience and legal history. AAS 3348: African Americans and the Law focuses on the historical and contemporary legal issues surrounding African Americans from slavery to present. The course simulates an intersection between law school and a policy-making body.
