

African American Studies
50th Anniversary Lecture Series

A Conversation with UH Alumnus and former Harris County Commissioner

Tuesday, February 19, 2019

Time: 11:30am | Location: Agnes Arnold Room 210

Mr. Locke is one of the student founders of the African American Studies Program here at the University of Houston. Mr. Locke is a University of Houston Alumnus who graduated with a degree in Political Science. During the 1970s, Mr. Locke was a community organizer and a leader within the city's Pan-African movement. Mr. Locke is the former Harris County Commissioner of Precinct 1. Additionally, Mr. Locke has served as City Attorney for the City of Houston and ran for Mayor in 2009. Presently, he is a senior counsel at Orrick Law Firm.

To RSVP, please contact Dr. Kevin Thompson at (713) 743-1376 or kbthompson@uh.edu for more information.

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON
AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES