It is strongly recommended that students enroll in the ASLI 1301, 1302, 2301 and 2302 courses here at the University of Houston. This will ensure that students develop adequate language skills to meet ASLI admissions requirements

What ASL/Interpreting courses may transfer into UH?

- To determine transfer credit, students must submit a copy of their ASL/Interpreting syllabus for each course.

How many hours can transfer into UH? A maximum of 66 lower-level hours will transfer to UH.

Can I enroll in Upper Level (3000-4000) ASLI courses? Students must first apply to the University and then apply to the ASLI program to take upper level courses. Course prerequisites are posted in the UH course catalog.
