

Study Abroad

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON | COMD
ComD COOGS

BELIZE

University of Houston

Communication Sciences and Disorders

May 15-21, 2022

Preliminary information

We have tentative approval from UH Learning Abroad. Final approval will come in early March.

<https://www.uh.edu/learningabroad/>

The information today is basic so you can start thinking about participating.

Due to the nature of the pandemic, everything is tentative for now.

Therapy Aboard, Inc. has safety protocols in place.

UH Learning Abroad will review the global situation in the new year.

Introduction

While partnering with Therapy Abroad, Inc. UH COMD students will provide direct services to people of Belize and experience the local culture and sights.

<https://www.therapyabroad.org/>

Dr. Andrews, Dr. Ross, and Dr. Ivey are the faculty (and clinical educators) for the trip.

Communication Services

01

Undergraduates:

Hearing screenings

Direct clinical observation hours

02

SLP-A:

Hearing screenings

Speech/language screenings

(possible, not probable, therapy)

03

Graduate Students:

Speech/language evaluation

Speech/language treatment

Screenings as needed

Due to COVID-19, all services will be with children this year.

Program fees

(Estimates, of course)

10 Students = PP $2,178

12 Students =PP $2,050

15 Students= PP $$1,887

17 Students =PP $1,818

Which includes:

All ground transportation in Belize

Lodging

Meals

Excursions

Not included:
Airfare to Belize
Spending money

The Tentative Itinerary

All work (nope, some work)

Attend ALL predeparture meetings
Clinic and Screenings@
Teach Me Preschool
NaRCIE
Bermudian Landing
Report writing and debriefing daily

All play (nope, some play)

Community Baboon Sanctuary
Belize City Tour
Lamanai archaeological sight
Caye Caluker/ optional snorkeling

Applications

1 Academic standing

3.0 or Above

Undergraduate students must complete: COMD 2339, COMD 2338, and COMD 2376 with B- or better.

2 Endorser Forms (2)

Forms to be submitted by someone who can attest to your responsibility, preparedness, judgement, etc.

3 ETC.

A personal statement and resume. If you are accepted through COMD, you'll also need to apply with UH Learning Abroad.

This could be you.

Final Notes

Submit questions

There will be a link to MS Form on the COMD Study Abroad website.

<https://uh.edu/class/comd/programs/learn-abroad/>

Submit questions to be answered at the Dec. 2/3 meetings.

<https://forms.office.com/r/guxKCkWfln>

Next meeting

December 2 at 10:00

December 3 at 2:00

More detail and answers to your questions

Scholarships

UH Learning Abroad has scholarship applications that will open in early December. We will discuss that and some fundraising ideas at the next meeting.

This will be cool.

Stay tuned- watch the website