

History

College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences

Film screening: The Eastern Front

Including a conversation with director
Vitaly Mansky

This is a film about Russia's full-scale war on Ukraine that was launched in February 2022 and continues to unfold, without a clear end to hostilities in sight. While sometimes unsettlingly candid, this film consistently offers profound insight, providing a close-up view of a nation's struggle for survival.

104 Agnes Arnold Hall
3553 Cullen Blvd
Free entrance

FRIDAY November 3, 4-6 pm

Supported by the UH Institute for Global Engagement & Department of History's John and Rebecca Moores Professorship.