As you get closer to graduating with your UH history degree, you may be thinking about continuing to study history at the graduate level or undertaking professional training in:

- Public History: http://www.uh.edu/class/ctr-public-history/graduate-program/index.php
- Library Science: http://www.ala.org/accreditedprograms/directory

For graduate training in history, your best bet for getting started researching your options would be to speak with UH History professors whose interests are closest to yours. They can inform you about programs that align with your interests and the application process. You may also find the following links helpful:

- http://www.uh.edu/class/history/graduate/