

Are you a visual artist, storyteller, or media technician?

Do you research and study film or television, cultural history or communications?

Do you design games or apps, organize visual data, or have a media-related business plan or advertising campaign?

Submit your work to the

2021 MMI Student Prize

Competition!

$500 cash prize

Entries can be submitted to one of three categories:

Critical (scholarly essays and research projects)

Creative (screenplays, short films, show reels)

Applied (software games and applications, data visualization, media-related business and advertising websites or campaigns)

Submissions must have been completed as part of UH coursework for the current or previous academic year (AY2019-2020 and AY2020-2021).

For more information about the competition see the MMI website:
<https://www.uh.edu/class/media-and-the-moving-image/resources/opportunities/>

For additional questions contact:

MMI chair Prof. Karen Fang kfang@uh.edu