

UH Three Year Loan Default Rate

University	2017
University of Houston	2.9%

Loan default rates can indicate how well University of Houston is helping students afford to attend college without undue reliance on loans, particularly unsubsidized loans. The official student loan default rate for a school is calculated by measuring how many students are in default three years after graduation. Note that the default rate only takes into account federal loans, not private.

Data source: Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid, UH