

Faculty Senate Resolution

December 14, 1977

Any faculty member who so desires should have the option to receive payment for services over the full calendar year through teaching no more than three summer courses.