

Letter of Financial Backing (Law Students)

The University of Houston requires confirmation of financial resources for applicants who seek/hold an F-1 visa. This statement must be completed and submitted, along with a current bank letter/statement and any other supporting documents, prior to the release of immigration documents. The University of Houston reserves the right to request bank statements as supporting documentation.

NOTE: Proof of financial eligibility documents include: bank letter(s), bank statement(s), employer letters, tax return statements, etc. The name on supporting documents should match the sponsor's name as stated below.

If claiming any dependents then a clear copy of the passport and proof of relation (marriage or birth certificate, in English) must be submitted.

Please determine your estimated expenses:

College	Career	Tuition & Fees	Books	Living Expenses	Dependents, if applicable (add $5,075 for each dependent)	Expense Total	If you receive the In-state Tuition Waiver subtract from the total
Law	Graduate (L.L.M) Based on 24 hours/9 months	$40,760	$2,900	$16,500			$11,200
Law	Professional (J.D.) Based on 30 hours/9 months	$44,930	$2,900	$16,500			$13,800

This information is necessary for Certificates of Eligibility (Forms I-20). Expenses are estimated costs for one academic year and may not reflect your exact payment per semester. These figures are subject to change without notification. This amount includes living expenses for 9 months. To be signed by the student only when self-sponsoring.
