About AIG

American International Group (AIG) is a leading global insurance organization. Founded in 1919, today we provide a wide range of property casualty insurance, life insurance, retirement products, mortgage insurance and other financial services to customers in more than 100 countries and jurisdictions. Our diverse offerings include products and services that help businesses and individuals protect their assets, manage risks and provide for retirement security. AIG common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange and the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

Actuarial Division

Actuarial professionals have the pivotal role in driving the results at AIG, and are integral to AIG's success with their expertise in quantitative analysis, insurance pricing, loss reserving, and risk quantification. We have dedicated Finance Actuaries that play a critical role in ensuring the financial condition of AIG's major regulated and rated insurance operating companies around the world.

Specifically, the Finance Actuarial team is responsible for reserving and valuation of liabilities; assessing the soundness of regulatory and rating agency; capital and assessment of insurance capital needs. Portfolio Analytics and Pricing Actuaries dedicated directly to support AIG's businesses are responsible for technical pricing, product development analytics, performance monitoring and measurement, and assessment of reinsurance needs. This team also works with marketing, operations, and financial management to achieve business objectives.
