TO APPLY FOR or RENEW a TEXAS DRIVER’S LICENSE or TX ID CARD:

→ You must reside in Texas for at least 30 days before you can apply for a TX DL or ID card ←
The 30-day requirement is WAIVED for applicants who surrender a valid, unexpired driver license from another state in the United States, but two documents establishing proof of residency are still required.

Take the documents listed below to a Texas Driver’s License Office to apply:

1. Passport

2. Visa or immigration documentation indicating your status: an I-20, or DS-2019.

3. I-94 (to print out, go to website https://i94.cbp.dhs.gov)

4. And for first-time applicants: bring two acceptable documents from the list below establishing proof of residency, one of which must demonstrate the applicant has lived in Texas at least 30 days, but neither of which is over 90 days old.

For a complete list of acceptable residency documents and additional details, please visit http://www.txdps.state.tx.us/DriverLicense/residencyReqNonCDL.htm

Please see next page for more residency document information.

Note: If you are under age 25, and a FIRST TIME applicant for a Texas Driver’s License, you must take an approved Adult Driver Education course (for example, http://adultdriversed.idrivesafely.com) BEFORE you can apply for a Driver’s License, which then exempts you from having to take the written test at the Driver’s License Office (if you take and pass the exam at the school).

If, under age 25, and you already have a currently valid license from another state in the USA, you are not required to take a driver’s license education course. (If 25 or over as a first time driver’s license applicant, you will have to take the written test at the Driver’s License Office, unless you take an pass the written exam at an approved driver education class.)

International Students, please note: You do NOT need a Social Security card in order to apply for a Texas Driver’s License.

Before buying any used car, especially from an individual, have the car checked out by a mechanic. Take an American friend along with you for assistance.

   2783 Red Bluff Road, Pasadena, phone 713 473 3232 (14 miles southeast; farther, usually less busy).

   Or visit www.txdps.state.tx.us/administration/driver_licensing_control/rolodex/search.asp for all driver’s license office locations in the Houston area.

2. What is the best day (least busiest) to visit the Driver’s License Office?
   Thursday, around 10 am or 2 pm, or Wednesday; Monday and Friday are the busiest days.

3. A driver’s license from another country is good for 90 days from day of arrival in Texas. To get a Texas driver’s license, you will then need to take both the written test and a driving test. An “International Driver’s Permit” is good for 90 days after your arrival in Texas, as long as you also have a valid unexpired driver’s license from that same country as well; then prior to 90 days are up you will need to take the written and driving test.

4. A currently valid (not expired) driver’s license from another state in the USA or from Canada, France, South Korea, Germany, or Taiwan, is good for 90 days from your arrival date in Texas. To get a Texas Driver’s License you will need only to transfer your valid driver license from that state in the USA. A driver’s license which has expired requires that you take a written test and then a driving test to get a Texas driver’s license.

5. You can take the Texas driver’s license written test anytime without an appointment. Be sure to arrive at least one hour before closing.

6. Can I now schedule a driving test online instead of having to go in person to the nearest DPS office to make an appointment? Yes! Go to:
   a. http://bit.ly/4E3EJ Scroll down to Houston Winkler or Pasadena (the closest to the University if Houston), schedule a driving test online, then Select Service: Driving test for a regular car or truck.

7. You can pick up a Texas Driver’s handbook to study for the written test at any Texas Department of Public Safety office or go online: http://www.txdps.state.tx.us/internetforms/Forms/DL-7.pdf

8. If you fail the written test or driving test, you can retake the test the very next day or later. You have three chances in 90 days to retake either to pass. If you don’t pass either in 90 days, you will need to repay the fee gain.

9. A learner’s or driver’s permit allows me to practice driving with a licensed driver who is 21 or older in the front passenger seat. How do I get one and how much does it cost?
   Take the written test; the $25 permit is good for six years. Tell the TX DPS person before you take the written test that you are taking it for a permit (not a driver’s license).

10. I’ve never driven before. Are there driving schools that can teach me how to drive?
     Yes; google “learn to drive schools, Houston, Texas” for a list of area schools. Cost is about $40 per hour.
     Note: A Defensive Driving Course (DDC) is only for those who have received a speeding or other kind of traffic ticket; the DDC is not a course to teach you how to drive.
11. I need to change my non-Texas license plates to Texas plates. For instructions on how to do this, go to:

   https://www.dmv.org/tx-texas/car-registration.php#Registering-a-Vehicle-in-TX

   (at a different location, not the DPS office).

New Texas residents can legally drive with a valid, unexpired driver license from another U.S. state, U.S. territory, Canadian province, or qualifying country for up to 90 days after moving to Texas.

Prior to the end of the 90 day grace period, a new Texas resident must apply for a Texas license in person at any driver license office to continue to drive legally. When applying for the new Texas license the individual must surrender any unexpired driver license in their possession from another U.S. state, U.S. territory or a Canadian province.

Adults (18 and Older)

Applicants who have a valid, unexpired driver license from another U.S. state, U.S. territory, or from Canada must surrender their out of state/country driver license and are not required to take the knowledge or skills exams (the written test or driving test). Texas also has license issuance reciprocity with France, Germany, South Korea, and Taiwan only. Applicants who have a valid, unexpired driver license from one of these countries are not required to take the knowledge or skills exams if they surrender their out of country driver license. However, if the applicant does not wish to surrender their out of country driver license, they must take and pass all required exams.
