Draft: Final

Supporting the University of Houston Hosting a Debate for the U.S. Senator from Texas General Election

Whereas, U.S. Senator Ted Cruz and U.S. Senate Candidate Beto O'Rourke have expressed interest in participating in at least one general election debate together;

Whereas, the University of Houston has held large-scaled, televised events and debates such as the Republican Presidential Debate on February 25th, 2016;

Whereas, College Republicans at UH and College Democrats at UH have come together to strongly support the University of Houston serving as a host site for at least one debate between U.S. Senator Ted Cruz and U.S. Senate Candidate Beto O'Rourke;

Whereas, University of Houston Governmental & Community Relations have already reached out to the respective contacts in the campaigns to let them know the university is willing to host a debate.

Therefore, be it resolved by the Student Government Association of the University of Houston:

That the Student Government Association joins College Republicans at UH and College Democrats at UH in their support of the University of Houston being considered by both candidates to serve as the host site for a general election debate between U.S. Senator Ted Cruz and U.S. Senate Candidate Beto O'Rourke.
