

Summer I (June 3-August 1)

* 5 day classes are all day long. You can assume 9-5 but individual instructors will adjust accordingly.

Course Number	Course	Schedule
7377/16562	Drugs in Society Robbins HBSE Elective	On-line; Mandatory in person orientation: Saturday, June 1st from 2-5 PM Optional in class meeting: Saturday, August 3 from 2-5 PM
7397/18567	Social Work with LGBTQ Communities Washburn Open Elective	Mandatory Orientation: June 30 10-12PM Class dates: July 8, 15, 22, 29 and August 1 st 9am-5pm
7325/18565	Assessment Reibenstein Required	Arranged
7326/17613	Health Disparities Bakos-Block Health Disparities Specialization	June 17-22, 8am-6pm
7316/17701	Clinical Practice w/ Latinos Flores SW Practice w/Latinos Specialization	Monday 6-9pm
7360/17717	Study Abroad- El Salvador Torres Open Elective	June 30-July 14
7357/17140	Shame, Empathy, and Resilience Brown HBSE Elective	July 9, 10, 16, 17, and 23 10am-4pm Mandatory Orientation: Date to be announced
7390/	Field Elective 3 Open Elective	Arranged; Contact Student Affairs or Field office staff for more information
7397/	Independent Study Open Elective	Arranged; Contact Student Affairs staff for more information

Summer II (June 2- July 1)

7356/17612	Clinical SW Practice w Groups Courville Open Elective	Tues, Weds, Thurs 6-9pm
7323/18564	Organizational Behavior and Change Latting MACRO Crossover	May 14, 1-4 Intro to course June 4, 6, 11, 13 10am-4pm
7397/18985	Trauma Treatment for Children Lopez/Taylor Open Elective	June 13, 18, 20, 25, and 27 9am-4pm
7397/18566	GIS for SW Prac and Research Kao Open Elective	Hybrid; Mon, Weds 9am-12pm Course description: This course examines the role of geography on human behavior, applying a spatial perspective to understand the social problems affecting individuals and communities. Students will be introduced to GIS technologies and their potential applications in social work practice settings, as well as social work research. Students will gain skills in using GIS software and spatial and non-spatial data (e.g. Census, administrative, etc.) in order to create multi-layered maps and conduct basic spatial analysis that can help to inform and further social work practice and research
7360/17716	Study Abroad- Turkey Colby Open Elective	May 14-24