

Job Title	Extended Observation Unit LCSW, LPC, LMFT or PhD
Employer/ Agency	Bluebonnet Trails Community Services Georgetown, TX
Job Description	Under the supervision of the Director of Crisis Services, the Licensed Professional of the Healing Arts (LPHA) is a member of the Williamson County Crisis Team. The position is responsible for initial Extended Observation Unit (EOU) admission and discharge decisions. The 13-bed program is located within Georgetown Behavioral Health Institute (GBHI), a private psychiatric hospital in Georgetown, Texas. The LPHA performs daily face-to-face clinical assessments and is responsible for initiating a Person-Centered Recovery Plan, engaging individuals to achieve rapid crisis stabilization. The clinician must be able to prioritize duties in order to provide rapid stabilization services during the 48-hour intensive program, such as crisis counseling, brief solution-focused therapy, substance use counseling, family sessions, diagnostic assessments, case management, skill training and discharge planning. The position works with an interdisciplinary treatment team and participates in staffing on a daily basis, led by a Psychiatrist or Advanced Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner. The position requires support and consultation to EOU Qualified Mental Health Professional (QMHP) staff. Additionally, the licensed clinician will provide assessments to persons eligible for the Law Enforcement Drop-Off Program, as needed. The EOU LPHA must possess strong knowledge of the principles, methods, techniques and practices of working in a person-centered and trauma-informed way with individuals experiencing a crisis due to behavioral health, substance use, intellectual and developmental, or co-occurring needs. The individual should have the ability to communicate effectively with diverse cultures and socio-economic populations. Must have skills and experience using integrated computer database programs to access files and document treatment services and the ability to organize and prioritize work assignments. This position requires an aptitude for working both independently and collaboratively. Takes rotating on call for consults.
