<td>Job Description</td>
<td>The University of Houston is a culturally diverse public urban institution and one of the nation’s top research universities. The University is located on 567 beautifully landscaped acres near downtown Houston. The University has 45,000+ students pursuing undergraduate, graduate, and professional degrees. The student population has more than 60% minority students (African American, Asian, Hispanic, and Native American) and 9% are international students representing more than 100 countries. The LGBTQ Resource Center (LGBTQRC) offers students a comfortable space to connect, study, eat and get involved. The LGBTQRC has programs that help LGBTQ+ students come out, adjust to college, grow in their identity, cope with the effects of prejudices and gain leadership skills. Other programs educate students, staff and faculty about LGBTQ+ people and issues including responding to negative LGBTQ+ attitudes and behaviors. In conjunction with its Advisory Board, the LGBTQRC works to change policies and practices on campus to increase LGBTQ+ inclusivity. We value the diversity of our campus and collaborate with the Center for Diversity and Inclusion and other campus departments to work toward an equitable college experience for all students. The LGBTQ Resource Center Sexuality and Gender Education Program Manager serves a pivotal role in the Center's education initiatives, support services, and student development programs, which all have a campus-wide impact on fostering inclusivity throughout our diverse campus population. They oversee the Center's marketing and brand management, to promote the goals and objectives of the LGBTQ Resource Center. The Program Manager reports to the Director of the LGBTQ Resource Center and is part of the Division of Student Affairs and Enrollment Services.</td>
