

Does a Social Worker Have any Responsibilities Towards Clients/Patients and Their Consumer Rights

THE ASSOCIATION OF BLACK SOCIAL WORKERS OF TEXAS ANNUAL ETHICS WORKSHOP

Presenters: State Representative Shawn Thierry
Carolyn Scantlebury, LMSW

WHEN: Saturday, October 21, 2017

REGISTRATION: 9:00 am – 10:00 am

WORKSHOP*: 10:00am – 2:00pm (*Note: you must attend entire workshop to be eligible to receive CEU' s.)

WHERE: Pilgrim Community Center, 3118 Blodgett St., Houston, Texas 77004

REGISTRATION FEE: $45.00 (includes a box lunch) Sandwich Choices: Ham, Turkey, Chicken Salad, Tuna, Veggie

*No Refunds

.3 CEUs Available for Social Workers (last four digits of SS# required)

OBJECTIVES: At the end of this workshop, participants will be able to:

- 1) Define Ethical Issues
- 2) Identify situations and resolve without going against social worker code of ethics
- 3) Understand: A social worker' s role in helping clients/patients identify and protect their consumer rights
- 4) Distinguish: Between what are the necessary needs for clients/patients to protect their consumer rights

REGISTRATION FORM: Does a Social Worker Have any Responsibilities Towards Clients/Patients and Their Consumer Rights ~ Saturday, October 21, 2017 , 10:00am – 2:00pm

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 2017

Name: _____

Address: _____ City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Day Time Phone: _____ Email Address: _____

Please Check One: Ham ___ / Turkey ___ / Chicken Salad ___ / Tuna ___ / Veggie ___

CEU' s (please check): Yes: _____ No: _____

Send Payment and Registration Form to Deveeta Porter, 7600 Creekbend Dr., #1402, Houston, TX 77071

Make checks/M.O. payable to ABSW of Texas

Contact Person: Deveeta Porter – email dlp0201@att.net or via phone 713.772.7373

LOOKING FORWARD TO SEEING YOU THERE!