Admission Information:

Admission to the Gerald D. Hines College of Architecture and Design is a two-stage process. First, applicants must be admitted to the University of Houston. Second, applicants who indicate Architecture, Interior Architecture, or Industrial Design as their first choice major will then be considered for admission into the College of Architecture and Design. All applicants are strongly encouraged to submit a portfolio, including a statement of interest at the time of application to the University of Houston. No additional or separate application is required for application to the Hines College of Architecture and Design.

Transfer Credit Limit:

A maximum of 66 hours (grades C- or better) of 1000/2000 level transfer hours may be applied toward a UH degree. These are the 66 hours that best meet the degree requirements for your UH degree combination (Major, Double Major, Double Degree, and Minor).

- Students who currently attend UH should refer to their departmental advisor BEFORE taking courses at another college.
- Courses listed above are suggested courses for this degree. Other courses in combination may apply to a degree.
- See department or course catalog for further information on your degree plan.

Texas Undergraduate In-State Tuition Enrollment Cap

Under current rules, Texas resident undergraduate students who enrolled for the first time in a Texas public institution of higher education in fall 1999 or later may be charged a premium tuition rate after they reach an established enrollment cap. For details, see http://www.uh.edu/provost/stu/stu_enrollcapqs.html
