Absences:
This class is treated as your entrance into the sport business world. Class attendance will be taken at each meeting; students are permitted to have one (1) absence without penalty. After the first absence, five (5) points will be deducted from your point total for the semester. If you are representing U of H and need to miss class to do so (i.e. field trip, athletic event, band, etc.), the instructor must receive notification IN WRITING from the organization (i.e. coach, athletic director, band director, etc.) at least 24 hours before the absence. Students representing U of H will not be penalized, but they will not be granted additional absences. You will lose 5 points from your point total for every class you miss. Excused absences accepted only in advance and in writing (NO EXCEPTIONS).

Dress Code:
Dress for this class will be business casual. Whenever you are speaking, interviewing, or presenting the dress requirement will be business attire. These terms will be defined during the first days of class. Minus one point from your point total for each infraction.

Policy for Late or Missing Work
Students are expected to have all assignments completed on the announced dates and times. NO LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

Students with Disabilities
The Center for Students with Disabilities provides academic support services for all UH students who have any type of health impairment, learning disability, physical disability, or psychiatric disorder. Individuals wishing to find out more about these services should contact CSD in Room 305 of the Student Service Center (or call 743-5400/voice 749-1527/TDD). Students requesting reasonable and necessary accommodations for this course (including testing modifications) should contact the instructor as soon as possible (but prior to a deadline).

Academic Honesty
Students are expected to abide by the university’s academic honesty policy in all matters concerning this course. (http://www.uh.edu/dos/hdbk/acad/achonpol.html). In particular, plagiarism, “Representing as one’s own work the work of another without acknowledging the source,” whether intentional or unintentional, will not be tolerated. Academic dishonesty on any assignment will result in a zero grade for that assignment or for the course depending on the severity of the infraction.

Course Communications
By University of Houston policy all students must have activated their campus e-mail address. Course communications may be done either through WebCT or through the PeopleSoft roster. Checking either source daily will ensure the student does not miss necessary information not given during class time. Students may also contact the instructor using their personal e-mail address. Please provide a salutation and your name with every communication.
Mobile Phone and Pager Use:
It is a distraction during class for a mobile phone to ring or for a student to text message. If the instructor is diligent, he may for each instance in which a student’s phone rings or beeps or in which a student is caught text messaging deduct 1% point from the student’s overall grade.

Laptop and Browser Use:
Though it is understood that students may use their laptops to take notes in class, it is also understood that they could become a distraction for themselves and others if not on task. The instructor reserves the right to ask students to power down their laptops or other browsing mobile devices if a student is caught off-task or perceived to be a distraction to others. The instructor may also deduct 1% point from the student’s overall grade for each infraction.

Additional Information
The following information is designed to help the class run smoothly. The instructor reserves the right to make additions and adjustments as necessary. Some of the writings, lectures, films, or presentations in this course may include material that conflicts with the core beliefs of some students. Please review the syllabus carefully to see if the course is one that you are committed to taking. If you have a concern, please discuss it with the instructor at your earliest convenience.
