The Stage Management sequence of courses is built around our general Production Track. All of our Theatre Majors take THEA 1332 (Fundamentals of Theatre) in their first semester as a prerequisite for later Theatre classes, and all of our Production students also take THEA 1334 (Fundamentals of Design), the prerequisite for all following Production classes. THEA 2382 (Stage Management I) is taken by Stage Management students in their second semester and by other Production students in their junior year.

The sequence of required Stage Management courses for Stage Management students will be:

- THEA 2382 (Stage Management I)
- THEA 2383 (Stage Management II)
- THEA 3383 (Stage Management III)
- THEA 3393 (Applied Stage Management Techniques)
- THEA 4383 (Seminar in Stage Management)
- THEA 4693 (Stage Management Internship)
- THEA 4393 (Theatre Management)

With the exception of THEA 4993, these are not lab courses, as the Stage Managers will be fulfilling some of their required THEA 1111/1112 hours (six semesters required) serving as Production Stage Managers or Assistant Stage Managers for School of Theatre and Dance productions.
