Competency areas addressed by the course (refer to appended chart for competencies that are required and optional in each component area):

☒ Critical Thinking
☐ Teamwork

v.6/21/12
Because we will be assessing student learning outcomes across multiple core courses, assessments assigned in your course must include assessments of the core competencies. For each competency checked above, indicate the specific course assignment(s) which, when completed by students, will provide evidence of the competency. Provide detailed information, such as copies of the paper or project assignment, copies of individual test items, etc. A single assignment may be used to provide data for multiple competencies.

Critical Thinking:
Students will write a four page paper that asks them to analyze a primary source and to use that source as evidence for a wider argument on the ideas, values and beliefs of the culture that produced that work.
Sample paper assignment: After reading Dhuoda’s Handbook for William, students are asked to address one of the following themes in their four-page paper:

Themes:
A. Women/Mothers: What does a reading of Dhuoda tell you about the role mothers played within the Carolingian family? What things does Dhuoda pass along to her son particularly because she is his mother? What does this say about the role women played in Carolingian society?
B. Men/Sons: What does Dhuoda say about the role of men/sons in Carolingian society/ the family? What do men owe their family? What kind of a man would make Dhuoda proud?
C. Political System: What kind of political systems existed in Carolingian Europe? What makes a king/lord good or bad? What kind of role does he have in relation to his subjects? What makes a vassal/servant good or bad?

Communication Skills:
In the same four page paper as above, students will demonstrate their ability to communicate effectively.

Empirical & Quantitative Skills:
Click here to enter text.

Teamwork:

Social Responsibility:
In the same four page paper as above, students will explore issues of social responsibility.

Personal Responsibility:
In the same four page paper as above, students will explore issues of personal responsibility.

Will the syllabus vary across multiple section of the course?  ☑X Yes  ☐ No
If yes, list the assignments that will be constant across sections:
The four page paper assignment will be constant across the sections.

Inclusion in the core is contingent upon the course being offered and taught at least once every other academic year. Courses will be reviewed for renewal every 5 years.

The department understands that instructors will be expected to provide student work and to participate in university-wide assessments of student work. This could include, but may not be limited to, designing instruments such as rubrics, and scoring work by students in this or other courses. In addition, instructors of core courses may be asked to include brief assessment activities in their course.

Course Requirements:
2 Tests (2X25%=50%) Mid-Term (March 7) and Final (Friday, May 4)
2 Papers (a 2-pager worth 15% and a 4-pager worth 25%) specific guidelines will be given and discussed in advance; A paper on the Epic of Gilgamesh will be due February 8; a paper on Dhuoda's Handbook will be due April 5. Papers are due at the start of class.
Class Participation (10%) this includes participation in class discussion, attendance, and reading assignments to be prepared before class.

Class Policies
• It is crucial, especially in a course that covers this much time and space, that you not miss class and that you keep up with the readings. Tests can and will cover material that is only in the book as well as only in the lecture.
• If you miss a test or paper due date for excused reasons, contact me as soon as possible and we can schedule a make-up when it is convenient. I will need proof of a valid excuse.
• If you have any special needs or disabilities which may affect your performance in this class, please contact the Center for Students with DisAbilities (CSD Building; http://www.uh.edu/csd/; 713-743-5400) as soon as possible. Don't assume accommodations can be made late in the semester.
• If you would like extra help on written assignments, please contact the Writing Center (210 Agnes Arnold Hall; http://www.uh.edu/writecen/; 713-743-3016)
• All work must be your own! Any assignment that is plagiarized or copied from other students will be given a zero. You will also get no points for class participation.

• I would rather you come in late rather than not at all, but please do your best to come to class on time. If you are late, please be mindful of disturbing others. Ringing cellphones and other disruptions will not be tolerated.
