

Proposed University of Houston Mission Statement

(Proposed by UH Faculty Senate Scholarship & Community Committee as of September 27, 2006

Approved by the UH Faculty Senate Executive as of October 4, 2006

Approved by unanimous vote of the UH Faculty Senate on October 18, 2006)

The Mission of the University of Houston is to create and disseminate knowledge through the education of a diverse population of traditional and non-traditional students, and through research, artistic, and scholarly endeavors, as it becomes the nation's premiere public urban university. In this role, the University of Houston applies its expertise to the challenges facing the local, state, national, and global communities, and it establishes and nurtures relationships with community organizations, government agencies, public schools, and the private sector to enhance the educational, economic, and cultural vitality of Houston and Texas.
